

Regulatory Readiness Solution

Navigate corporate sustainability regulations with confidence and clarity

The challenge

In today's complex regulatory landscape, businesses face mounting pressure to comply with sustainability legislation like CSRD, CSDDD, UFLPA and LkSG. Many organisations struggle with:

- Uncertain obligations: Which regulations apply to your business and what do they require?
- Resource limitations: How do you conduct thorough assessments with limited internal expertise?
- Practical implementation: How do you translate complex requirements into business actions?
- Prioritisation challenges: Where should you focus your compliance efforts first?
- Supplier engagement: How do you gather necessary compliance data across your value chain?

Consulting solution & approach

The Regulatory Readiness solution provides a streamlined, expert-led approach to understanding and addressing your sustainability compliance obligations. Working with our dedicated team of regulatory expert consultants, you'll experience a structured engagement that delivers results in just 2-4 weeks:

Clear regulatory visibility

We identify potentially relevant regulations for your business and translate complex requirements into clear insights. We provide streamlined information to help your internal teams assess which laws apply, saving them valuable time on research and analysis, so your business can focus on what matters most – implementation and improvement.

Targeted gap assessment

Our experts evaluate your current sustainability practices against relevant regulations, as well as customer requirements, and global standards if required. We identify critical gaps and provide clear, actionable recommendations to address them.

Practical implementation roadmap

You'll receive a time-bound implementation plan with clear milestones with defined responsibilities, transforming complex requirements into manageable steps.

Supplier engagement recommendation

We provide high-level recommendation for supplier communication and data collection, supporting alignment with supply chain transparency regulations.
